Privacy Statement

disAbility Living respects your legal right to privacy and has implemented a Privacy Policy that sets out how we manage personal and sensitive information in an open and transparent way. The Privacy Policy includes information about how disAbility Living collects, uses, discloses, secures and destroys your information.

The Privacy Policy has been developed to align with our organisational obligations under the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2013 (Cth) and Australian Privacy Principles (for further information visit www.oaic.gov.au)

You may request a hard copy by contacting our Privacy Officer on 8132 5400 or email privacy@disabilityliving.org.au or by completing the Privacy Request/Query form.

We may collect contact information, unless you object, that may be used to send news, information about our activities or general material which we believe may be of interest to you. Your information is kept confidential to the best of our ability at all times.

If you do not wish to have your personal information used in this manner please contact our Privacy Officer on 08 8132 5400 to have your details removed from our database. Written complaints should be sent, with any supporting documentation, to the Privacy Officer at the following address:
